Thank you for visiting this website!

Thank you for visiting this website, which is owned and operated by FEops. FEops is a fast growing company developing cutting edge simulation technology for next generation planning of transcatheter structural heart interventions.

This Online Privacy Policy explains our information practices and the choices you can make about the way your personal information is collected and used through this website. If you send us information through this website, you agree to our use and disclosure of that information in accordance with this policy.

Personal Information We Collect

You may browse many sections of this website without providing any personal information about yourself. For example, you can review our product offerings for clinicians or medical device companies or read about our company and its management. However, if you choose to sign up for Product and Company Updates, register for one of our services, ask us a question through our Contact e-mail, or apply for employment with us, we must necessarily collect certain information from you.

FEops collects names, addresses, e-mail addresses, telephone numbers, nationality and (if applicable) company information (i.e. the company name of your employer) from visitors to the website who register their information or any other online service, such as subscribing to Product and Company Updates.

If you apply for a job with FEops through our website, the information collected will include your qualifications for the position, your education, applicable licenses or certifications, prior job history, references, and any other information that you choose to include about yourself.

FEops will also store information related to the product or service requested, such as your name and contact details, the nature of the product or service requested, and related information so that we may fulfill your request, manage your order and for our commercial relations. They may be passed on to companies that contribute to these relations, such as companies that execute services and orders, for their management, execution, processing and payment.

FEops will also process personal data received from the Client in conformity with the applicable data protection and privacy legislation whereby the Client confirms that, for the application of this legislation, the use made thereof is part of the medical treatment of its patients. FEops will implement sufficient security measures to guarantee this. FEops is entitled to use the fully anonymous data (including the content of the reports delivered by FEops to the Client) for its further research and development activities.

For any information that we collect through our sites, FEops will own that data and will keep it strictly confidential. Personal data will only be used for the specific Service requested by you with respect to you as an individual. Occasionally, FEops may invite you to participate in a survey or poll such as providing feedback on our website content, services, or products. Your responses will be anonymous unless you choose to provide your contact details so that we can provide you with additional information regarding the survey. In the event of us intending to use your data for newly defined purposes, we will ask your explicit consent.

Cookies and Other Anonymous Web Tracking Techniques

Like most websites, we use "cookies" on our website to help us serve you better on future visits, and to help us evaluate and improve the content or functions of our site. A cookie is a small text file which is sent by a website, accepted by a web browser and then placed on your hard drive. The information collected from cookies lets us know that you visited our site in the past, and helps you avoid having to re-enter information on each visit in order to use some of our products or services. You can always set your browser to refuse all cookies from this and other websites that you may visit. This will provide you with more control over the acceptance of cookies on your computer. However, it is possible that some portions of this website will not function properly or may perform more slowly if you choose to reject cookies. By using our websites and not disabling cookies, you consent to their use for the described purposes.

Using and Sharing Information Collected

FEops may share your information with third parties that assist us in providing the products or services that you requested or improving our marketing or administration. This includes companies that provide analytics to us about use of our website, so that we can evaluate use of our websites and continue to improve our website content.

FEops does not share or sell any personal information that you provide to us through our website for any separate use by any third party.

From time to time, we will provide aggregate statistics about our customers, sales, online traffic patterns and related information to reputable third parties who help us improve our business and services, but these statistics do not include any personal identifying information.

In the event that we sell, assign or transfer all or part of the FEops business, we may transfer your personal information to the buyer. However, the buyer, assignee, or transferee will be required to safeguard your personal information in a manner that is consistent with the requirements in this Privacy Policy.

Safeguarding Your Information

Consistent with applicable laws and requirements, FEops has put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and administrative safeguards to protect your personal information from loss, misuse, alteration, theft, unauthorized access, or unauthorized disclosure. We evaluate these safeguards on an ongoing basis to help minimize risks from new security threats as they become known. However, as is the case with all websites, we unfortunately are not able to guarantee 100% security for data collected through our public website.
Update, Modify or Correct Your Information

FEops takes reasonable steps to ensure that your personal data is accurate and up-to-date for the purposes for which it was collected. We encourage you to contact us to update or correct your information if it changes or if you believe that any information that we have collected about you is inaccurate. Consistent with legal requirements and limitations, FEops also permits you to obtain a copy of personal information that we hold about you. To do so, please write to us using one of the options described later in the policy. Please note that we will likely require additional information from you in order to honor the request.

Right to Unsubscribe

You have the right to unsubscribe from any services that we offer if you no longer want to participate. To do so, please use our Contact Us link on this site for additional information. Please note that if you already have requested products or services when you decide to withdraw consent, there may be a short period of time for us to update your preferences and ensure that we honor your request. And please note that FEops cannot delete your personal data if the storage and use of these data is required by law or is necessary in the context of a contract.

Links to Other Websites

Our website may contain links to other websites that are not owned or operated by FEops. You should carefully review the privacy policies and practices of other websites, as we cannot control and are not responsible for privacy policies or practices of third-party websites that are not ours.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

As we continue to provide additional services and as the privacy laws and regulations evolve, it may be necessary to revise or update this Policy. We encourage you to review this Policy from time to time, as you return to our site, so that you are familiar with any changes. Please note that we use personal information in accordance with the privacy policy that was in effect at the time the information was collected.
